

Friday 5th September 2025

Dear parents and carers,

Welcome to the start of our new school year.

Thank you to Patience for creating and donating the balloon arch which was in place to welcome back our children on Thursday. It has been wonderful seeing so many of you enjoying it.

In assembly yesterday, I spoke to the children about their hopes for the new school year. They told me they hoped to improve their sporting skills, develop and grow new relationships within their year groups and prepare themselves for their final year of primary school

Summer holiday homework

Please ensure your child brings in any summer holiday homework by Wednesday 10th September. Please make sure all homework is handed to your child's class teacher and is clearly named.

Beginning of year parent/carer year group information

The beginning of year parent/carer teacher information presentations will be shared on your child's Google classroom page in the WB: 22nd September. These presentations will provide you with an overview of the curriculum for your child's year group and key dates and information.

Dates for the month ahead:

- Friday 12th September beginning of year Mass in church 9.15am
- Monday 15th September Roald Dahl day- more details to follow soon!
- Wednesday 24th September pupils school photographs
- Friday 26th September parent/carer SEND support group meeting 9-10am

Best,
Sarah Ballantine
